IN FILLING this Scrap Book NEVER gum in papers, etc., close to binding. Leave at LEAST ONE-HALF INCH from back of leaf.
To get a better result after gumming the paper or picture on the leaves, STAND the book up on END, the leaves spread apart so that the air can flow through and dry. This will prevent MOULD, and the leaves will be less liable to wrinkle.
PAT. No. 471,276.

$150 Reward!

Yours truly
Albert Meyer

The Longshoremen's Union and Gloss Steam Laundry will jointly pay $150.00 for the arrest and conviction of Albert Meyer who absconded with their funds as hereinafter stated.

The small picture is taken from a group picture taken three years ago, and is a very good likeness of him now. The large one was taken in Los Angeles several years ago. You will notice his peculiar signature as shown above.

Albert Meyer signs his name A. Meyer, is of German birth but looks more like a Swede. Speaks good English but with a slight accent. Is 26 yrs. of age, well built, height 5 feet 7 inches, weight 145 lbs. Dark complexion, has dark hair slightly mixed with gray, gray being quite noticeable, parts hair in the middle, is a little bald on each side from temples back and when he combs his hair, brushes the ends up over with the brush on each side. Always goes smooth-shaven but can grow a beard very quickly and shaves quite often. He has dark brown eyes. Has a deep dimple on chin and a scar on the under side of left jaw, caused by the removal of an ulcer or abscess, and which shows very plainly when he holds his head down as such movement causes the skin on neck to wrinkle up and causes the scar to stand out plainly. Also has a habit of stretching the muscles of his neck by moving his head up and down. Has a tattooed bracelet on one wrist, covered however with his cuff, and two letters tattooed on the back of the other hand between the thumb and first finger. Don't know what these letters are, but merely mention same as a point.

When he left Aberdeen, wore a black made to order suit, made by John Hanson, tailor of Aberdeen. Suit measurements as follows:—Coat 37½, waist 33½ pants 33½ waist, 31¼ in length, seat 38½. Tailor's trade mark on them. Wore No. 7½ black "Just Right" shoes, soft black "Gordon" hat which he wore pulled down over his eyes, as shown in small cut above; and soft collar shirts size 16 with small bow tie.

This fellow has been a sailor and also served a short time in the German Navy, and came to Aberdeen about five years ago and has been there ever since. Never worked very steady but held jobs as book-keeper and at the time he left here was Treasurer of the Longshoremen's Union of Aberdeen and was also keeping books for the Gloss Steam Laundry. He is a poker fiend and could always be found hanging around card joints.

Meyer's laundry mark at the Aberdeen laundry was "— X." Laundrymen should be at once apprised of this and urged to promptly notify local officers if the mark should come under their observation.

When he left Aberdeen on the 27th of April 1909, he got away with about $1500.00 of the Longshoremen's fund and about $300.00 belonging to the Gloss Laundry. He was seen on Second avenue in Seattle on April 29th, two days following his departure. The Longshoremen have offered and put up $100.00 for his arrest and conviction and the Laundry will also give a $50.00 reward.

If found arrest and hold and wire me at my expense as I hold warrant and will come and get him. Pacific coast officers be particularly watchful for this fellow.

day May 22 the following horse and buggy was stolen from le, this County.

Black mare weight about 700 $\frac{1}{2}$  white star in forehead; age about 12 years; has white on both hind feet but more on left than on right; Black open buggy, steel tire, the nut was gone from one of the bolts that fasten the shafts to the axel clip and bolt was wrapped with string to keep it from coming out.

The above rig was stolen by Leo Hathaway described as follows, age 34 years; height 5 feet 1-3/4 inches in stocking feet; weight 127 lbs. light complexion; Brown hair; Blue eyes; Stout chunky build; connected eyebrows; perpendicular scar of 3 inches on left cheek bone, shows very plainly; Very large vaccine left upper arm; scar at base of palm on left wrist; scar on left shin bone wore a small round black soft hat and steel colored coat when last seen; the inclosed photo is a very good likeness of this party; keep a good look out for him and arrest him wherever found and wire at my expense, I hold Grand Larceny warrant.

We have just received information that Hathaway was seen at a ranch several miles from Watsonville at 8 P.M. (4 hours after he was seen with the above described rig) with an entirely different rig, good looking light gray animal, newly painted buggy, with black body and red gear and he told his friends that he was on his way to San Francisco. Look for him in any kind of a rig as he has either traded or stole another rig but as he hired a rig Friday and returned same Friday evening as last described we think that the parties who saw may have been mistaken in their dates and he may still have the black mare and black buggy.

To the Sheriff.

Dear Sir:

We hold warrant for the arrest of Henry A. Cyr, wanted for forgery committed at Conrad, Montana, on January 19th, 1909. The last heard of him was at Stine, Nevada, on March 11th. He was then on his way to California where he expected to get work. We have excellent reasons for thinking he is now working somewhere in your State; am inclined to think he is still going by his right name of Henry Cyr, but he may take an alias name. If this young man is caught he may put up a smooth talk, but we want him held under any circumstances, as we have a clear case against him and want him badly. He is a common laborer and can turn his hand to most anything.

Alphonso H. Cyr; alias Henry A. Cyr, is twenty-four years old; five feet, eight inches; about one hundred thirty-five pounds; dark complexion; hair black and very thick and heavy; eyes very dark brown, and is a little cross-eyed; is a Frenchman, but speaks good English; teeth poor, and on upper jaw, stand wide apart and are quite noticeable; is a great talker, and does not work long in a place; claiming to be a laundryman by trade and claims to belong to the Laundrymen's Union.

Now brother officers, we are satisfied this young man is in your State, and we ask you to kindly give this case special attention and do everything in your power to help us bring this fellow to justice. If located, arrest, hold and wire at our expense, and I will come at once with the necessary papers.

Respectfully yours,

Kenneth McKenzie,

ANGUS A. GRAHAM

commonly called Captain Graham; 51 years of age; height about 5 ft. 11 in.; weight about 185 lbs.; brown hair; clipped, sandy mustache; gray eyes; ruddy complexion; has large sore, about the size of a hand on left leg, which he keeps bandaged; limps slightly; left Los Angeles about June 1st, 1909 at which time he was wearing a brown sack suit, late style soft green hat, a cheap watch. He is said to be a 32 degree Mason.

Said Angus A. Graham caused an advertisement to be inserted in the Los Angeles papers by which he induced no less than eight and probably ten men to advance to him $250.00 each for expense of a prospecting trip to Mexico which the said Graham agreed to personally conduct and pay the expense of from said money advanced. At the time appointed to start upon the trip he disappeared with all the money. The warrant I hold was issued upon complaint of Charles Bossert, one of the said parties so advancing $250.00, filed in the Justice's Court of Los Angeles City, State of California before William Frederickson, Justice of the Peace of said city on the 5th day of June, 1909 and warrant issued by said magistrate on said date was placed in my hands for service.

Angus A. Graham passed his early days in steam-boat work on the great lakes, possibly for a time as captain and at that time he had headquarters in Chicago where it is said that his mother and three sisters now reside. He is also said to have been in business in Seattle, Washington, dealing in roofing material; in the same business later in San Francisco, California and also worked for the H. Johns Manville Roofing Company in New York City for about four months, thence to Toronto, Canada. Prior to that time he passed a number of years in mining and prospecting in the Yukon Territory, Canada, as well as in Alaska and is well known in Atlin, Dawson and Nome. Soon after the earthquake in San Francisco he conducted a road house for about six months at Palmetto, Nevada and is said to have been well known in Goldfield, Tonopah and Reno.

I am anxious to secure the apprehension of this man and upon being notified of his arrest, requisition papers for his return to California will be promptly secured.

If arrested in any foreign country, upon such arrest extradition will at once be applied for to the United States Government and immediate steps will be taken to make such application as soon as notification of his arrest is received.

Please promptly communicate any information received to Look out for a watch described as follows: Solid gold case with box hinge. Columbus Watch Company make, and marked on dial "Columbus Railway King." Number of case 129548. Number of works 353587.

Stolen here on April 5th. Watch pawnshops and second hand stores.

I have in my possession a watch and knife, which were taken from a Mexican brought in by one of my deputies, and which I am satisfied were stolen. The Mexican claimed these articles were given him by another man to pawn, but he failed to point out the other man, and did not claim the articles when released.

The watch is a Columbus Watch Co. make, about an 18 size gold filled hunting case with box spring or hinge. Case No. 1414321. Number of works 156165. The ring in the top is much worn, and the watch has evidently been pawned several times, as four different numbers are scratched inside the case.

The knife is an ordinary three-bladed pocket knife with transparent celluloid handles. One blade is broken. On one side, under the handle, is a man's picture and the name O. H. Chain, and on the other side is an old lady's picture.

POLICE DEPARTMENT, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

JULY 17TH, 1909

ARREST, for Obtaining Goods by False Pretenses, (a Felony)
(I hold Warrant)

DESCRIPTION:

WILLIAM DAVIS: 41 years of age, but looks several years older; height about 5 feet, 8 inches; weight about 145 pounds; sallow complexion; blue eyes; very dark hair, which is graying; almost bald on top of head; mustache originally very dark, now mixed with gray; upper front teeth all gold; both cheeks deeply furrowed from sides of nose down around ends of mouth; suffers from and complains greatly of asthma and heart trouble; probably has both legs bandaged because of swollen and diseased condition of same. Usually walks with a cane, and grimaces noticeably as though suffering. Usually displays badges of Masons and Knights of Pythias; also claims to be a member of the O. R. C. Davis is of the Jewish religion—his father a Welshman, his mother a French Jewess. At times no accent is noticeable in his speech, while at other times he talks as a typical Jew. He also speaks French fluently.

This man for years has perpetrated a series of swindles by securing credit for large amounts of general merchandise and disposing of same for cash. If he regains his health he is likely to attempt a similar swindle. Would advise that you inform members of the Board of Trade and Credit Men's Association of your city and request that they be on the look-out for this man.

On March 1st, 1908, Davis opened a general merchandise store at Santa Ana, California, and by means of false representations, regarding his resources and financial responsibility, purchased goods on credit to the amount of $5000.00, disposed of same for cash and absconded with the proceeds. Complaint charging that the said William Davis, at and in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, on or about the 23rd day of March, 1909, did obtain by false pretenses from Cooper, Coate & Casey Dry Goods Company, a corporation, goods of the value of five hundred dollars, a felony, was filed in the Justice's Court of Los Angeles City, County of Los Angeles, State of California, on oath of John M. Jordan, of Los Angeles, before Joseph F. Chambers, Justice of the Peace of said city, on the 5th day of October, 1908, and warrant issued by said magistrate on said date was placed in my hands for service.

Said Davis having been arrested in the City of New Albany, State of Indiana, on said charge, was extradited to the County of Los Angeles, State of California, being received at this city on May 27th, 1909. On account of his poor physical condition, when he reached the city and before his arraignment upon said charge, he was, upon the advice of the Los Angeles Police Surgeons and other physicians, committed to the Los Angeles County Hospital, from which institution he escaped on the night of Friday, July 9th. At that time he was dressed in soft light shirt with turn-down collar; blue overalls; soft brown hat and a pair of slippers; had neither coat nor vest. Davis's physical condition is such that he may be found in some hospital or in a private house receiving medical treatment. His wife is now in this city, but may possibly join him, as she has been very devoted to him. She is a Jewess, about 24 years of age; height 5 feet 6 or 7 inches; fine figure; weight probably 145-150 lbs.; usually dressed in black and neatly; she is a dress-maker by trade. They have a three-year-old girl, whom no doubt the mother will have with her.

The Credit Men's Association of Los Angeles, California, and many wholesalers of this city who are his victims, are particularly anxious that this man be again arrested and brought to trial, not only because of his serious swindle here, but because his record shows that he has practiced similar swindles for ten or more years before coming to Los Angeles County.

If arrested, hold and inform me by telegraph and requisition papers will at once be applied for and an officer sent to return Davis to this city.

MERCILESS exposure of the scandal that separated Major John W. Tompkins, former warden of San Quentin, and his wife, Mrs. Emma Allman Tompkins, was made yesterday when two detectives found the woman living as the wife of
W. F. Gordon, alias Wingard, at 2159 Mission street, when Gordon, who is a former convict, was arrested for forgery and placed in detainee at the city prison.

Mrs. Tompkins left her husband about the middle of July, locking him out of the family home at Fourteenth and Cameron streets, Fruitvale. That fact was exclusively published in The Call. From the family home Mrs. Tompkins went to Gordon, the former convict. The friendship between the felon and the society woman began when Gordon was a prisoner at San Quentin, in charge of Mrs. Tompkins' husband.
Gordon was a trusty. He was tutor to Harold Tompkins, and between study hours the man in stripes took occasion to cultivate the friendship of the keeper's handsome wife, a woman more than 10 years older than himself.

The success of his methods was demonstrated yesterday when the former Oakland society woman and heiress trailed weeping to the city prison, in the wake of the man for whom she left her home, her husband and her son, a handsome lad of 18 years of age.

MERCILESS exposure of the

John W. Tompkins, former

Mrs. Emma Allman Tompkins, was
made yesterday when two detectives
found the woman living as the wife of

Mrs. Tompkins left her husband

fact was exclusively published in *The

Oakland society woman and heiress
trailed weeping to the city prison, in the wake of the man for whom she left her home, her husband and her son, a handsome lad of 18 years of age.

Curious Defense

Mrs. Tompkins' most curious defense of the strange situation in which she was found was this: "When my husband was warden at the prison he allowed me to be brought into contact with convicts and I was insulted by several of them, who sent letters to me which did not read right." She added that she lived with Gordon merely as a friend—that he was her only friend.

All the parties in this inexplicable situation of felon, warden and warden's wife were reticent. The strange triangle of dubious association, with its one corner resting in a prison cell, was but vaguely explained.

"I had not been living with my husband for three years before I left him.
I had done nothing more than take care of him," said Mrs. Tompkins at the city prison. "Now I want nothing more to do with my husband."

"And I want nothing more to do with Mrs. Tompkins," said the venerable major in Captain Anderson's office at the hall of justice, six feet away from his wife and separated only by a thin partition.

Fictitious Draft

Gordon is accused of having passed a fictitious draft on A. Jacobs, a tailor at 17 Kearny street. Gordon, accompanied by Mrs. Tompkins, went to Jacobs and ordered a suit of clothes. He said that he would make a deposit of $10 on the suit, and offered in payment a draft, dated May 20, 1909, for $25, payable to W. F. Gordon, signed by "H. C. Watson" and on "George W.
Harrington, 212 Fifth street, San Diego." Jacobs accepted the draft, gave Gordon the $15 change and then tried to have the paper honored. He found out, the police say, that there was no such person as "George W. Harrington, 212 Fifth street, San Diego."

Then he reported the case to the police and Detectives Burke and Balletto were detailed to locate the man and woman. Their identity was not then known.

Balletto located the couple yesterday morning at apartment 101, 2159 Mission street, the Marianna apartments, where they were living as "Mr. and Mrs. W.
F. Wingard," which, according to Major Tompkins, is Gordon's original and real name, although his identity has been diluted with the application of many aliases.

Detectives Locate Couple

Balletto and Burke went to the apartment, and the latter knocked at the door. Mrs. Tompkins opened it. "Is Mr. Davis in?" asked Burke.

"No, he does not live here," replied Mrs. Tompkins, and she endeavored to close the door. The detectives pushed in, however, and then made known the purpose of their visit. Gordon was found in the kitchen. Although it was nearly noon he was not fully dressed.
"I am William Wingard," he said,

CARD No. 176—2nd Issue

Arrested.Arrested$50.00 REWARD.

WANTED FOR MURDER of Manuel Garcia in Contra Costa County near the County Line about nine miles from Livermore on Sunday, Aug. 1, 1909.

ALSO WANTED FOR FORGERY and jumping his bond in San Francisco. When searched in San Francisco, had a poll tax receipt issued from Kern county, bearing the name of Alfred Weinbeck.

Suspect this murder was committed by a man by the name of James McFarland, alias Alfred Weinbeck, whose description is as follows: About 30 years old, 5 ft., 5 or 6 inches high, weight about 150 lbs., rather round face, hard looker. When talking cannot look a person in the eye. Blue eyes, dark hair medium length, inclined to be curly. Was smooth shaven Sunday morning. Upper front tooth missing or broken off. Has the appearance of a man that did not care for hard work. A smooth talker with rather soft voice. Has ruddy complexion, a heavy drinker.

Wore a dark blue coat and vest which appeared to be of serge material and was in good shape and a pair of dark pants, the appearance of corduroy, well worn with three-corner tear between the right knee and the hip which had been sewed up. Also a tear below the same knee. Fairly good pair of small lace shoes with tips. Soft, flat drab hat.

This man claimed to have worked at Byron and inquired the way to Richard William's at Tassajara, also worked at McNamara ranch near Brentwood.

This was a most atrocious murder. Garcia was shot in the back with a 44 caliber rifle, which was his own gun and afterwards struck over the head with the gun, breaking the stock from it, then struck three times in the head with an ax.

The above reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Manuel Garcia.

Five years, light hair, round face; wore a pair of gray pants, gray waist and barefooted.

The above are excellent pictures of the children.

About 1 o'clock, P. M., August 2, 1909, GRACE VIVIANO, two and one-half years old, daughter of Peter Viviano, 1011 North Seventh Street, and TOMASSO VIVIANO, her cousin, five years of age, mysteriously disappeared from their home at the above number.

About 4:20 P. M., the same day, the father, Peter Viviano, received a letter stating that the writer had kidnapped the two children, and demanding a ransom of $25,000.

It later developed that one SAM TURRISI, an Italian, who boarded in the same building with the Viviano's, was seen at about 12:00 o'clock, noon, the same day, with Grace Viviano. He took the child to buy some ice cream for her, and neither has been seen since that time. Sometime about 11:00 A. M., August 2, 1909, Turrisi took his clothes and placed them in a valise and left his room. Turrisi came to St. Louis from Pittsburg, Pa., six month ago, and was employed at one time by the Singer Sewing Machine Co. He can read and write both the Italian and English languages. He has numerous friends among the Italians at railroad camps and mining towns throughout Illinois.

WANTED FOR FORGERY

R. E. STUCK and H. H. McIVER, fraudulent advertising solicitors, swindled several newspapers in Nevada by means of raised notes which were attached to advertising contracts.

Their method here was to make a contract with a newspaper for a page of advertising and then to block the page for sale to business men at a uniform price of $18 per square. The newspaper printed the contract form, which included a note for $18, payable in 90 days.

The solicitors then made contracts with business men at lower rates, wrote the smaller amount in pencil over the printed figures and amounts, settled with the newspaper on the lower figure, detached the notes and, after erasing the pencil amounts, discounted the notes at the bank. These men are known to have been in Nevada City, Cal., on Sunday, the 10th inst.

Look out for them, arrest and hold. I hold warrants.

DESCRIPTIONS

R. E. STUCK, about 25 years old; about 5 feet, 9 inches tall; weight about 150 pounds; dark complexion; dark hair and eyes; smooth shaven; good appearance; apparently well educated; WRITES LEFT HANDED.

H. H. McIVER, age about 40; height about 5ft., 10 in.; weight about 175 pounds; complexion dark; hair brown, thin; teeth bad and irregular; smooth shaven; wears Elk's pin and uses it boldly in business; smiling countenance, plenty of "glad hand" business.

There is a warrant in Reno also for Stuck on account of similar transactions there. There was a woman with them in Reno, probably still with them.

ARTISTIC TRAMP GETS IN JAIL AT TRACY

Railroad Policeman Captures Pest Who Paints "Monica" Everywhere.

"America's greatest tramp, Penn, 1909" has been given ninety days in jail on a charge of malicious mischief, by Judge

Looney, at Tracy. As announced in The Bulletin, Chief Kindelon of the S. P.'s secret service had all his men on the lookout for the gladsome hobo who was defacing stations and bridges everywhere with his monica. He was captured by a railroad policeman in disguise.

Penn's real name is Frank Welsh. He is equally well known here in San Francisco, in Hong Kong, in London, or in Pittsburg, where he was born some twenty-six years ago. Welsh is somewhat given to drawing the long bow, like all Sir John Maundevilles, all picturesque and mirthful men that wander ever up and down the earth. Yet if but half of all the tales he spins are true, he has wandered over 500,000 miles at an expense of two dollars, and is even a newspaper man of good report.

How greatly he has wandered, how much he has thrilled those staid hearth-side fellows that make newspapers in Kankakee and Montreal and Mexico City may be seen in Welsh's collection of clippings regarding himself. On Wednesday he is in Toledo, "mooching" a lunch from a reporter on the strength of certain marvelous tales of golden Hebrides and of "pounding yet ear in an empty till de shacks kicks yuh off and den t'rowing yer feet fer a poke out." A day later he is electrifying the senior reporter in Waterloo, Iowa, with the same account.

One can even see where the man has lied by comparing his stories in the various clippings. The only place where he greatly contradicts himself is in regard to his first leaving home. Always, he was born in Pittsburg. But once it was an irresistible wanderlust that led him to leap from a second story window and start out on the road while his anxious parents guarded the lower doors. Again, he went to an adjacent town, with a companion, to peddle newspaper extras regarding a ball game, and didn't come back for four years!

He has been in San Francisco many times. Just before being arrested, he told an up-state scribe that he was going to "hit Frisco"—that showed him an East-erner—and then ship on a windjammer bound round the horn. He would bask in beachcomber wise under the more splendid southern sun and lazily watch the glitter of tropical leaves from the tawny beaches of wonderful seas. Then he would head for Pittsburg; give up his wanderings; marry a pretty little girl who is awaiting him there, and settle down to sordid trade. But the rude cops interrupted his vocations of advertising himself and pipe-dreaming about the pretty little girl, and he's in the coop where Wanderlust avails little. Furthermore, by Chief Kindelon's orders, if he tries painting his monica again when he is released, he is immediately to be apprehended.
Probably the picturesque days and wild nights of America's greatest hobo are over. He belongs to the past.

Humbly hidden in his cell though he is, Welsh has had great moments. He has written for magazines. He won a bet with Harriman. Welsh was painting his monica on a section house near New York, the story goes, when a mild looking man approached and introduced himself as Harriman. "I'd like to know how you fellows manage to beat the railroads," said Harriman. "I don't believe you could do it if you were watched. I'll bet you a thousand dollars you can't make your way from here to San Francisco in ten days." Where Welsh got the thousand dollars to back up his end of the bet, legend sayeth not, but both legend and Welsh declare that he made the distance in eight and a half days, beating the record of that other famous bum, "A No. 1" by two days.

"Another feat that Welsh talks about," says a Southern paper, "is getting out of Cheyenne on the U. P.'s 'Silver Dollar Limited' without getting shot. The back of the beyond at Cheyenne is filled with the graves of hoboes who have tried the same trick."

In the magazines Welsh is not unknown.
Frank Munsey's "Railroad Man's Magazine" quotes the hobo to the effect that he has traveled between San Francisco 150 times on the "hat check game."

This device Welsh describes in the magazine, and has mentioned to many reporters along the line. It is his favorite. When arrested he had in his pocket a number of colored pasteboards for use in it. He also carried many of them in his suit case—the case which he is accustomed to send ahead when he rides the beams or rods, that he may appear in the next town in the neat glory of creased trousers and linen collar. (Query: rubber collar? He calls it linen and so do the aforesaid reporters, but the habits of even the grander geniuses of his gipsy tribe would indicate rubber).

With this suit case under his arm, but clad in humble overalls, Welsh worked

Advise me if

Roderick
ican, born of the hat check trick. He waited till a vestibuled passenger train was leaving the yards; leaped upon the vestibule steps and opened the door from the outside, by some skeleton-key device known to him alone. Entering the last car, where the conductor had already collected his tickets, he noticed what marks were on the hat check of the passenger bound for the furthest point on the division, and with a sharp bladed knife cut similar marks in a check made from the colored cardboard carried in the suit case. Pulling his hat over his eyes he went to sleep—and, all but once, deceived the conductor. That once was a bitter exception. Welsh was arrested and had to sweep the streets of a Middle Western town, in prison garb, on a gay Fourth of July.

Welsh was not only written of. He wrote about himself. In an article in the Oklahoma City Times he described his recent adventures with some humor.

"Then I walked about a mile into the country," he relates, "and rapped at a farmhouse door. A lady came out and I says: 'Kind lady, will you do me a favor?'"

"What is it?" she asked me.

"Let me look at a mirror."

"Why?"

"I want to watch myself starve to death," says I. I got a good hand out."

Promenading Broadway in creased white flannels; then, in ragged hand-me-downs, shielding himself from cinders under a freight car; such has been his life. His monica stares from docks and bridges in Honolulu, Nagasaki, Chee Foo, Vladivostok, St. Petersburg, Sydney, Hamburg, Cape Town, Rio Janeiro. He has been a kind of heroic hobo. And now he lies in the Tracy calaboose and his monica is doomed. Will he pass away with the passing of the Tramp Royal?

Jack London, the tramp royal, is now a famous author. "A No. 1" is a guest and friend of Jack London. He is not in disfavor with the railroad special service men, who have him jailed every time they catch him painting his monica, yet smile at his exploits. Chief Kindelon has a book of postal cards from "A No. 1," cards from all over the country; and when the hobo was in jail Jack Harrold, the chief's assistant, even visited him.
But who now has a good word for "America's Greatest Tramp, Penn, 1909?" As a vagabond he's so late in the game as to be considered a second rate imitator. As a philosophical anarchist, despising all restraint, he's some hundreds of years too early. Peace to his dashes.

Dear Sir:-

I hold a warrant for the arrest of Pat Mesa, alias Pat Mazy, alias Pat Ragan, alias Pat Larson, for impersonating a U. S. Officer. He has also passed several bogus checks here and can be prosecuted under the State law for that offense. He disappeared from the place he was stopping here in San Francisco, last Wednesday morning and has supposedly left the city. He has spent nearly all his life traveling from place to place in California and may drop into your town at any time. He was born at, or near Livermore, but left there when quite young for Campo Seco, in Calaveras County and I am informed that he has relations there now. Is well known at Stockton, Sacramento, Los Angeles and Oxnard. In fact all of his bogus checks were drawn on the Bank of Oxnard, and from his conversation with his acquaintances here, I am inclined to believe that he is well known there. He is a man of Mexican descent, about 37 yrs. old; height about 5 ft. 8 or 9 inches; weight about 175 lbs. dark complexion and has a scar on the bridge of his nose- very perceptible. When he left here and in fact all the time that he is known to have been here in the city, he wore a brown sack suit, black derby hat, soft white silk negligee shirt and tan shoes.

MISSING MAN

RECEIVED

NOV 15 1909

HARVEY E. WILSON, sometimes goes by the nicknames of "Spike" Wilson and "Jack Westphal." Has not been heard from since August, 1909; when he left this city he stated that he would like to go to Denver, Colo., or Hot Springs, Ark. He may have been beating his way on the trains and met with an accident and been killed. Kindly make inquiries of the Coroner of your county if he has any record of such a person having been killed, and buried as an "unknown." Also make inquiries at the carriage and blacksmith shops of your city and see if he is working at some of these places; he is a member of the Carriage and Blacksmith Union, and inquiries at these Unions may reveal his whereabouts. He has worked at his trade in San Francisco, Bakersfield, Fresno, Stockton, Kern City, all in this State. We are very anxious to locate this young man for the reason that one of his Aunts recently died and left a large estate, and he is one of the beneficiaries of the will, and it is hard to get a settlement unless we can prove that he is dead or alive. He was born and raised in Stockton, Cal.; his relatives all formerly lived in that city, but recently they have been living in this city.

DISCRIPTION OF WILSON: Age about 27 years, height about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches, weight about 150 or 155 lbs., is of very slender build, dark complexion, smooth face when last seen, has square jaws, think some upper teeth are gold capped; generally wears black soft hat and dark sack suit of clothes; has a deformity in his shoulders, carries one shoulder higher than the other—is very noticeable when he is stripped—was caused from an injury, he having been run over by a wagon when a very young boy.

REMARKS: Wilson is a brother-in-law of mine, and if you do not succeed in locating him, kindly give this to your papers; if you get any trace of him kindly advise me at once and I will get in communication with him; the above picture was taken when he was about 15 years of age, but there is a strong resemblance in the face at this time.

He was arrested on this charge and delivered to me in Butte, Mont., March 23rd by the officers there, and escaped custody by jumping from a toilet window of a fast moving train, near the city limits of Denver, Colo., on my return home two days later. It will require the greatest skill to find and apprehend this man as I am sure he is working under cover, and will use every precaution to keep in the clear. DEC 14 1909

San Francisco, Cal. December 13, 1909.

Mr. A. B. Langford Sheriff - Santa Clara County
San Jose Calif.

Dear Sir:-

I wish you would kindly advise if you recently located and caused the arrest of E.C. Parker who is wanted by Mr. Dickinson, Proprietor of the Oregon Hotel, Portland, Ore. This man as you will note from the following description is wanted for passing a forged check on the above hotel. This service, as you will note by above letter head, is handling the detective work for the Western Hotel Mens Protective Association of which Mr. Dickinson is a member. Kindly advise by return mail, if convenient, and if you have this man in custody please advise us as to what disposition is made of his case, as this man has been indicted by the Grand Jury at Portland and a warrant is now in the hands of the proper officials. The forgery for which he is wanted by Mr. Dickinson was committed on November 13, 1909.

Description as follows; about 5 ft., 10 or 11 in., weight 200 to 220 lbs., 45 years of age, thin, yellow hair; florid complexion, might be called sandy; mustache, if any and not dyed, light colored and tinged with gray; often squint eyed when facing the light; wore nose reading glasses but not distance glasses; has appearance of being stoop-shouldered when walking; speaks with foreign accent, probably Swedish but possibly German or Danish; says, "I tank" for "I think"; uses such expressions as "this here" and "That there" and "his'n", showing illiteracy and poor command of the English language; has neat and tidy appearance and is clean about his person and clothing.

In this case this man represented himself as a man of wealth and had retired from business and was on his way to California to look for investments in orange groves. His game is to make acquaintances about the hotel and through these acquaintances to get introductions to the hotel clerks and so get his check cashed.

If found, arrest and notify by wire at our expense. He no doubt, is aware that he is wanted for this crime, as well as many others.

Yours very truly,

THE THIEL DETECTIVE SERVICE COMPANY.

$200 REWARD

GEORGE BLACK, ALIAS POMTAG.

I hold felony warrant for one Claud Black alias Claud Pomtag, of whom a good picture is shown hereon. He left this county on the morning of December 12th, 1909, in company with a girl by the name of Ruth Ward.

Claud Black alias Pomtag, age about 24 years old; height 5 feet, 8 or 9 inches; weight 150 to 160 pounds; fair skin, dark brown or black hair, blue eyes, smooth shaved; wore when he left here a light colored suit of clothes of heavy material, white soft hat, medium size, low cut tan shoes; he also has a brown suit of clothes, brown derby hat and brown cap.

Black is a vaudeville actor and was engaged in that occupation at Lindsay, this county, when he left. He has also been with Wild West Shows and has been engaged in a number of other occupations; viz, timekeeper, hotel clerk; also claims he worked for the Webster Detective Agency in one of the Eastern States, but I do not know what state the Webster Agency is located in.

Ruth Ward is 16 years old; height 5 feet, 4 inches; dark complexion; dark hair; brown eyes; wore when she left blue skirt, long blue coat, white sailor waist; was bare-headed.

These parties may probably pose as brother and sister, or as man and wife. They are not related. The girl signed her name as Ruth Pomtag. She was ticket seller for the show where Pomtag was employed and she will probably be acting in that capacity where Pomtag has an engagement, which will probably be a moving picture show with some vaudeville acts.

The following was copied from one of his hand bills:

"Claud Pomtag, One man vaudeville. Mr. Pomtag is one of the cleverest artists on the stage today, and as he is adapted to many talents, he is one of the best entertainers, ventriloquists, female impersonators, black face and tramp comedians. Mr. Pomtag is also among the few artists who imitate a slide trombone without the use of an instrument. Don't fail to see this artist."

If you find the above described parties, arrest man and hold girl as she is a minor. There is no criminal charge against her, but her relatives want her held until they can reach her. Relatives of this girl, through their bank, have authorized me to pay the above reward for the arrest and delivery to me of Black alias Pomtag. Inquire at all moving picture and vaudeville shows.

Wire all information to me at my expense and if Pomtag is arrested I will come for him immediately.

Hart, whose right name is Fred Triest, or he may take some other name, age 30 to 35 years, five feet one or two inches high, weight about 180 pounds, black hair, Maroon eyes, nose medium, prominent cheek bones, large, full face, smooth shaven, heavy neck, thick hands, thumbs and fingers turn back, heavy shoulders, large stomach (may be false), small feet. Once seen will be easily recognized from his peculiar shape, which tapers from the shoulders to his feet; length of body average, very short legs, wore short pants, soft shirt with collar two sizes too large; wore a dark mixed green cast sack suit (summer weight), brown dicer hat, may wear a green sweater over his coat with a blue border and large pearl buttons; walks spry; claims to have worked in a department store at cor. of 9th and Walnut streets, Kansas City; will seek some quiet place to board; will inquire about the efficiency of the officers from his landlord; will be expecting to have money come by mail; later will get it, but in bad checks, of which he passed some on several merchants in Roseburg. Gave checks on the Security Savings & Trust Co., of Portland, Oregon, made payable to Mrs. F. D. Hart, and endorsed by I. B. Hart and by Mrs. F. G. Hart, who accompanies him. They have a 2-months-old girl, which they call Constance, a very pretty child, fair complexioned, hair auburn and about two inches long on back part of head; very little hair on top of child's head; child has a new, white silk bonnet which it may wear, also a red knit bonnet. In his lodgings he is fond of saying: "Hello, Constance Hart." When walking the streets his accomplice generally carries the child. He will pretend to his landlord that he has secured a position in some local store or be intending to purchase some shoe store, as he is well posted in the shoe line; claims to be a Jew. His mother runs a boarding house in San Francisco. I also hold a warrant on the same charge against Mrs. Hart, who passed bad checks in other parts of the town at the same time. All checks were passed after banking hours on Dec. 18, 1909. They disappeared the same night.

Description of Mrs. Hart: She is a full head taller than Hart; complexion light; age from 22 to 25 years; light hair, bluish eyes; a little hollow chested, with large breasts, weight 130 pounds; very white and pale, as though she had been sick; wore a black drab silk waist, large black hat, short black Caricule coat (style 2 years old), light, ready made black skirt, white stock (ends hand worked); Hart called her Sa-lie, and said that Gardner, of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, took charge of her when she was young, her parents having died, and that she was married at The Dalles, Oregon, and that Gardner was present at her marriage. Had two grips and one basket, claimed their trunk was lost on R. R. These parties cleaned up a good sum here. I hold warrants for both parties. Arrest and wire at my expense.

Was Banished,

Edward Sweeney, Alias John Griffin, Twice Banished to Distant Lands for Burglary, and Now Under Arrest in Salt Lake City.

EDWARD SWEENEY IN MORE TROUBLE

Safecracker Who Was Shown Leniency Is Now to Be Sentenced.

THE resistless love for home and crime in the breast of Edward Sweeney, alias John Griffin, the safe cracksman, twice banished to distant lands instead of sent to prison by Judges' leniency, has finally set him squarely on the road that leads to the doors of San Quentin. Detective Sergeant J. M. Mackey is now on his way to Salt Lake City, where Sweeney is under arrest, and will bring him here to be sentenced for a crime committed two years ago.

Sweeney, according to his witnesses, always had a fondness for those men who defy the law and it is told that when he was a boy he used to invite a motley crowd of yeggmen to eat and sleep in the hotel conducted by his mother in Monterey.

Two years ago today he was captured in the hardware store of Edward E. Gillon at 1432 Point Lobos avenue. He was busily boring a hole under the combination of the safe and at his side was a big bottle of nitroglycerine. A policeman saw him inside and laid a hand on his shoulder. Sweeney is deaf and had not heard the footsteps of the policeman. He was convicted of burglary for this offense, but it was shown that his family were very respectable people of Monterey and that he had got into bad company. Judge Carrol Cook instead of sending him to prison banished him to Australia. The Government refused to allow him to land, so he wandered back as a stow-away via the Hawaiian islands. He was re-arrested on a ship in this harbor and again taken before the Superior Court.

Judge Cabaniss thereupon banished him to Alaska for five years. Nothing more was heard of Sweeney until a week ago, when the police of Salt Lake City sent the picture of a man arrested there for breaking into a store. Detective Sergeant Gibson, at the head of the Identification Bureau, instantly identified the picture as that of Sweeney. The authorities in Salt Lake City wrote that they did not have a very strong case against Sweeney and would surrender him to the San Francisco police. Sweeney will be brought back here by Mackey in a day or two and will be taken before Judge Cabaniss for sentence. There will probably be no more banishment for Sweeney for the list of accessible foreign countries has given out and Sweeney has shown his utter inability to keep away from the land of his birth and the avocation of his choosing.

RECEIVED

WANTED FOR PASSING FICTITIOUS CHECKS.

I will pay $20.00 reward, for the arrest and delivery to me in any jail in the United States a man who signed his name as John J. Hoffman, true name unknown; aged 45 years; height about 5 feet, 6 or 7 inches; weight about 165 pounds, smooth shaven, except about a week's growth of dark beard when here; rather round, red face; left shoulder a little lower than right shoulder, speaks with a slight German accent; think he wore old dark suit of clothes, and black soft hat. This party's graft seems to be directed to restaurants and lodging houses. He will buy meal ticket or engage a week's board, or rent a room in some lodging house, and then offers in payment a check in larger amount than the bill gets the difference in cash, and leaves immediately. This party passed a check on a restaurant man at Tulare, this county, on January 23, 1910. Check was signed J. H. Hughes in favor of John J. Hoffman. This check was evidently drawn by Hoffman.

If arrested notify me at my expense, and I will come for him at once. I hold felony warrant.

Dated Visalia, Cal., Jan. 25, 1910.

NOTIFY NEWSPAPERS.

About three weeks ago a man named J. M. Walsh Jr. and a man named Boswick appeared in Stockton and stated to one of our newspaper proprietors that they were advertisers. They secured figures on a page of the newspaper, to be published daily, and then solicited about town for advertisements to be published in the form of a newspaper directory. They agreed to collect no money from advertisers until the first appearance of the newspaper directory, but contrary to this agreement, collected from several persons and embezzled the money. After collecting they failed to appear at the newspaper office and publish the directory.

They also left their baggage at the Imperial Hotel and an unpaid bill for $47.00

These men worked Redding under other names and will probably endeavor to work their scheme in other cities. I respectfully request you to notify your newspapers.

We have a misdemeanor warrant for Walsh and if he is located, please advise me by wire. Following is a description of Walsh:-
